Charlotte's highlight:

Charlotte successfully killed two birds with one stone by selling her old stuff on eBay – not only did she get to have a declutter, but she raised £525 in the process!

Charlotte's advice:

“My piece of advice for fellow fundraisers would definitely be to make the most out of bucket shakes and the bigger the fancy dress the better! A costume that draws in children is always good because then the parents usually donate some loose change!”
